Working Effectively with Supervisors and Management – JHSC

Course Description

Help learners understand how safety decisions are made in real operational environments, and develop practical strategies to communicate clearly, reduce friction, build credibility, and influence action in collaboration with supervisors and management.