Accident Safety Topic

This section addresses accidents, any unplanned event that results in personal injury or damage to property in the workplace.

The cause of an accident(s)can be identified through job safety analysis(JSA’s), accident investigations, and near-miss reports. Occupational safety programs are designed to take preventative measures by improving the environment and employee practices in the workplace. The utilization of warning signs to indicate and define specific hazards are…