Cost Containment Injury Follow Up Safety Brief

Supervisors play a prominent role in accident prevention as well as effective claims follow-up and monitoring. Effective supervisory intervention after an injury can often prevent litigation, reduce time off and ensure a positive experience of care and concern for all involved. Beyond the critical roles of ensuring treatment of the injured employee and proper processing of paperwork, supervisors are also responsible for the follow-up and prompt return of…