Drinking and Driving – A Fatal Decision

A true story of what happened when Bob drank a few beers at a party and decided to drive home…a young girl dead, his wife paralyzed and Bob in jail. Viewers watch as the girl killed in the crash is identified and brought to the morgue. This program shows how quickly and dramatically lives can be permanently altered when an average person makes a choice to drive after drinking alcohol.