Emergency Preparedness for Childcare

Course Description

This course gives you the knowledge to design and run effective fire, weather, and lockdown drills in childcare environments. You will learn how to communicate with children, how to practise safely, and how to build systems that actually work when stress levels rise.