Enamel Bottling and Packaging Company Cited For 37 Alleged Safety and Health Violations

An OSHA inspection resulted in $61,000 in proposed fines. Alleged violations include blocked exit doors and routes; a blocked and restricted fire suppression system; an inadequate flammable storage room; improper storage of flammables; inadequate electrical equipment; inadequate PPE; lack of hazard communication training and various machine guarding hazards.

[Concept Packaging Inc., Newburgh, NY. Release number 09-393-NEW/BOS 2009-100, April 13, 2009]

Download