ESSENTIAL 29: First Aid – Fundamentals – Canada

Course Description

After completing this course, learners will be able to explain initial responder responsibilities, identify legal and ethical issues related to being a first responder, and explain when it is appropriate to move injured patients and how it should be done. (Canada Version)