Fall Protection for Management Bulletin

Management Should…

- Develop a written fall prevention plan.
- Identify potential fall hazards priorto each project & during daily walk-arounds.
- Pay attention to hazards associated with routine and non-routine tasks.
- Eliminate the need for fall protection where possible by rescheduling the task, isolating the task, or changing the task.
- Ensure that fall protection equipment is…