How Hazards Show Up in Real Work — JHSC

Course Description

Help learners recognize how hazards show up in day-to-day work through tasks, environmental conditions, equipment issues, and human factors, and understand how real work differs from written procedures.