Identifying Materials That May Contain Asbestos for Roofers – Refresher

Course Description

Old shingles, felts, or cement boards can hide asbestos fibres, and if we disturb them, those fibres can become airborne and harm our health. This refresher course will focus on how to spot materials that might contain asbestos in roofing work.