Incident Investigation Safety Video

Topics covered include: Taking immediate action at the scene of the incident, gathering facts and information, how to take effective pictures and document an incident scene, techniques for interviewing witnesses, methods for analyzing the facts and information gathered, developing corrective actions, implementation and communication, and the importance of follow up.