Linen Company Cited for 21 Alleged Safety and Health Violations Issued $47,600 in Proposed Fines

OSHA conducted an inspection and found a range of hazards related to fall protection, flammable materials, confined spaces, lockout/tagout issues, bloodborne pathogens, personal protective equipment and inadequate hazard communication training.

[Morgan Linen Service, Menands, NY]

Download