Oven Manufacturer Cited for Multiple Alleged Willful, Serious Violations

Proposed fines totaling $187,150 have been issued to an industrial oven manufacturer following safety and health inspections. Two willful citations allege that the company failed to provide adequate fall protection and to evaluate hazards in confined spaces. Thirty-six serious citations allege machine guarding, fall protection, electrical, respiratory protection, fire extinguisher, welding and bloodborne pathogens issues.

[International Thermal Systems, LLC, Milwaukee, WI. Release Number 07-1257-CHI, Sept. 4, 2007.]

Download