Performance Management Safety Brief

Performance feedback should be immediate – Corrective measures should occur as soon as possible after the undesirable behavior, the longer it is delayed, the less effective it will be.
Corrective action should have a prior warning – Unexpected discipline almost always results in hostility and resentment. Employees need to understand expectations and acceptable and desirable behavior…