PowerPoint Overview of the 9 New GHS Pictograms

The Globally Harmonized System (GHS) was created by the United Nations to classify and label chemicals to ensure that workers across the world have consistent information on chemicals and their hazards.

Run through this PowerPoint for a quick review on the 9 GHS pictograms. This PowerPoint details the official names, signal words and hazards associated with each pictogram.