Privacy Part 5 – What is Meaningful Consent

Course Description

Privacy Part 5 Covers important questions about meaningful consent including is consent required for information that is accessible to the public, when is consent valid, when is consent not required, who is responsible for consent when processing of information is outsourced, when privacy policies should be updated and organizations obligations to approaching consent.