Quick Course – Head off the Blows

The hardhat is an essential piece of safety gear no construction worker should be without. Not all hardhats are made equal, however. This quick course will cover the three types of hardhats and how to ensure you are using them correctly to protect yourself.