Selecting Safe Delivery Routes and Protecting Property

As a propane delivery driver, you are responsible for protecting people and property in the course of your job. The following tips can supplement your company’s safety plan and help you prevent any unnecessary issues.