"Find out how a good contract can:

1. limit notice and severance obligations
2. avoid constructive dismissal claims
3. protect your Intellectual property
4. protect your customer relationships
5. protect your investment in your employees"

Lisa Goodfellow is a trusted adviser to employers on a wide range of human resources matters, including wrongful dismissal actions, human rights and accommodation issues, attendance management, employment standards, employment aspects of mergers and acquisitions, certification applications, collective bargaining, unfair labour practice complaints, grievance arbitrations, management training, non-competition and non-solicitation obligations, injunctions, and protection of proprietary information.
