

Sexual Harassment Prevention California-Supervisors

California Sexual Harassment Training For Supervisors California law (AB 1825) required companies with 50 or more employees to provide Sexual Harassment Prevention Training to all supervisory employees within 6 months of hire or promotion, and every two years thereafter. AB 1825 was recently amended by SB 1343, which makes it mandatory for companies with 5 or more employees to provide sexual harassment prevention training to both supervisory and non-supervisory employees every 2 years. All organizations must be compliant by January 1st, 2021.

Our supervisor training meets and exceeds the requirements per California's updated Fair Employment Housing Commission (FEHC) Guidelines.

Our two-hour course for supervisors builds on the base instruction for employees about sexual harassment, discriminatory behavior, and types of conduct that create a hostile workplace to include:

- Federal and state statutory provisions concerning the prohibition against and prevention of sexual harassment
- Remedies available to victims of sexual harassment in employment
- Practical examples inclusive of harassment based on gender identity, gender expression, and sexual orientation; and
- Prevention of abusive conduct for both employees and supervisors
- Definitions and illegality of sexual harassment
- Descriptions of sexual harassment, utilizing examples
- Internal employer complaint processes that are available to employees
- Legal remedies and complaint processes available through the CA Department of Fair Employment and Housing
- Directions on how to contact the CA Department of Fair Employment and Housing
- Protection against retaliation and how to avoid any retaliation scenarios
