Slips Trips & Falls – Horizontal Fall Protection for Managers and Supervisors

Course Description

Developed for managers and supervisors, this course will help you understand and explain the differences between slips, trips and falls, identify and assess the hazards that cause each one and select appropriate controls to manage those hazards, including engineering controls, administrative and work controls and fall protection and other personal protective equipment (or PPE).