

State Records Retention Requirements – LA

LOUISIANA

Wage and Hour

Every employer shall keep a true and accurate record of the name, address, and occupation of each person employed by him and of the daily and weekly hours worked by and the wages paid each pay period to the employee. These records shall be kept on file for at least 1 year after the date of the record.

Worker Injuries, Health, and Safety:

Every employer with more than 10 employees who is subject to recordkeeping by OSHA (29 USC 6565) within 90 days of any occupational death of an employee, any non-fatal occupational injury involving loss of consciousness, restriction of work or motion, transfer to another job, or medical treatment other than first aid, send to the records management section the following information: employer's name, employee's name, employee's occupation, a description of employee's duties, a description of employee's workplace, date of death, injury, or onset of illness, a description of the accident or occurrence resulting in death, injury, or illness, and the number of workdays lost or days of restricted activity involving the employee and resulting from the accident, occurrence, or illness.

Other Employment Records:

Every person employing minors shall procure and keep on file an employment certificate for each minor, except for minors employed in approved federally funded youth training programs. Such certificates shall be accessible on the job site, or in the immediate area of the work location, at all times.
