Supervisor Safety & Health Awareness Canada

Course Description

This course gives you the awareness and confidence you need to lead safely. It covers your legal obligations, how to identify hazards, how to guide your team, what documentation you need, and what real leadership looks like when safety is on the line.