Think of the Next Person Fallen Phrases

Answer: An important rule of thumb when making a decision is “to think of the next person”. Preplanning is one of the most important things individuals can do at work to ensure safe and efficient operations. Great things happen when everyone begins to consider how their decisions will affect others.