Workers Compensation Recordkeeping and Reporting Requirements – VA

VIRGINIA

Must Employers Maintain Records of Accidents or Injuries?

Yes

Must Employers Report Injuries?

Yes, all injuries or deaths.

When Must Report be made?

Within 10 days.

Penalties for Failure to Report

Civil penalty of not more than $500; if the workers' compensation commission determines that the failure to report was willful, the penalty shall be not less than $500 and not more than $5,000

Citation to Authority- click on links to view statutes:

Va. Code Ann. § 65.2-900

Records and reports of accidents

Va. Code Ann. §65.2-902

Failure to make required reports; Penalty