Working With Cranes Safely – Construction Safety Video

Reminds employees that over 90% of crane-related accidents are caused by human error… and that they are the key to preventing these incidents. Areas covered in the program include: Physical and mental preparation, Equipment inspection, Hazard assessment, Boom cranes, Jib cranes, Overhead cranes, General and operational safety devices, Crane operations, Hand signals and more.