

105303 WHMIS Pictograms

- 1. There are nine pictograms that represent hazardous materials.
True False
- 2. The two categories pictograms fall into are health and safety.
True False
- 3. Match the physical hazard to its pictogram:

| | | |
|----|--|-------------------|
| a. |  | 1. Compressed gas |
| b. |  | 2. Corrosives |
| c. |  | 3. Oxidizer |
| d. |  | 4. Flammable |

- 4. Match the health hazard to its pictogram:

| | | |
|----|--|--------------------------------------|
| a. |  | 1. Irritants |
| b. |  | 2. Acutely toxic |
| c. |  | 3. Biohazardous infectious materials |
| d. |  | 4. Corrosives |
| e. |  | 5. Health hazards |

What Would You Do?

What Would You Do? You are training a new employee on the hazardous materials that he may use on the job. The label on the canister has these pictograms:

How do you explain to him what they mean? What would you do to help him remember what hazards they represent?