2. Workplace spills are only a danger to workers present in the spill area.
True
False
3. Regular inspection and maintenance of machines has nothing to do with spill prevention.
True
False
4. Which of the following does not help with spill control?
<ul><li>a. Drip pans</li><li>b. Barricades</li><li>c. An umbrella</li><li>d. Spill kits</li></ul>
What would you do?
What would you do?  You come across a puddle of liquid on the shop floor that has a very strong odor. You aren't sure what it is but you're pretty sure it's not just water. What would you do?
You come across a puddle of liquid on the shop floor that has a very strong odor. You aren't sure what it is but you're
You come across a puddle of liquid on the shop floor that has a very strong odor. You aren't sure what it is but you're
You come across a puddle of liquid on the shop floor that has a very strong odor. You aren't sure what it is but you're
You come across a puddle of liquid on the shop floor that has a very strong odor. You aren't sure what it is but you're
You come across a puddle of liquid on the shop floor that has a very strong odor. You aren't sure what it is but you're
You come across a puddle of liquid on the shop floor that has a very strong odor. You aren't sure what it is but you're
You come across a puddle of liquid on the shop floor that has a very strong odor. You aren't sure what it is but you're

105548 Workplace Spills - Seven Sources and Seven Methods of Prevention and Control

1. A spill prevention plan should identify storage areas and processes at risk for spills.

True

False