

Young Workers and Restaurant Safety Infographic

INJURIES ON THE JOB

3

Leading causes of occupational injury in foodservice: strains & sprains, cuts & lacerations, heat burns

6+

Number of days absent for nearly half of occupational injuries for cooks & other foodservice workers

21.3%

Percentage of occupational injuries and illness for cooks that involve 31 days or more away from work

HURTING YOUR BOTTOM LINE

$74 billion

Total paid by U.S. employers in workers' compensation in 2009

$5,041

Average medical cost for a single occupational injury

$2.5 million

Estimated cost to a 500-unit chain for a single lost-time incident per location per year

AN OUNCE OF PREVENTION

9:1

The average cost of a single lost-time incident vs. the cost of 4 annual workplace safety audits

67

The number of line items reviewed in Steritech's standard foodservice workplace safety audit

$1 = $5

For every $1 spent on workplace safety programs, employers achieve an estimated $5 in savings

Source: <https://www.steritech.com>